

*... the experience my mother had provided me
day after day at supper: [...]
it was a celebration of one another;
it was a love feast served with beauty and grace.*

(... la experiencia que mi madre me había proporcionado día tras día en la cena:
[...] era una celebración de cada uno al otro; era un festín de amor servido con belleza y gracia.)

Hahn, Scott & Kimberly. Rome Sweet Home. San Francisco: Ignatius Press, 1993; p. 10